INDIA-UK FLIGHT SERVICES DOUBLED

A recent announcement of British Airways revealed the plans to increase the number of flight services between India and the UK. Due to shifting of place from 'Red' list to 'Amber' list by the United Kingdom, the travel demand between the two nations has seen a sudden spike. Fully vaccinated Indians have to go for a mandatory 10 days home / hotel quarantine in England.

According to the airline, starting August 16, flight services have been increased from 10 to 20 per week due to a growth in the passengers movement on the India-UK route.

RISE OF CONTACTLESS TRAVEL

Airports, airlines, hotels and cars are taking every possible measures in order to keep their guests and customers safe. Innovations in daily operations, introduction of new technology, and other mandatory steps are the orders of the day to keep the worry levels low for their customers. It's for sure that the world is seeing a rise of contactless travel but the adaptations are equally significant in this post pandemic times. Let's do a quick finding across travel sectors and check their methods.
