Sikkim Opens Yumthung Valley

The Sikkim state government has now opened the famous Yumthung Valley in Lachung village for tourists. This is surely a welcome move that comes after a week the state eased travel restrictions in several other tourist destinations, such as Nathula, Tsomgo Lake, and Baba Mandir. Tourists are already seen in Sikkim and more will start visiting the state after a prolonged lockdown period.

However tourists who are vaccinated with single shots will be required to produce a negative RT-PCR test report that should not be older than 72 hours before arrival, whereas those who are fully vaccinated are allowed to enter the state against certificates without any restrictions.

PLAN YOUR VACAY IN UTTARAKHAND

Gartang Gali Opens After 59 Years!

That is quite an interesting news for the adventure lovers as the historic wooden bridge - Gartang Gali, located at a height of 11000 ft in Nelong Valley in Uttarakhand's Uttarkashi district, is now open for tourists. The bridge, built by the Pathans 150 years ago, was closed after the 1962 Indo-China war. According to reports, the wooden bridge has been built in traditional style, by cutting through a single rock. While on the bridge, one gets to witness breathtaking views of the stunning Nelong Valley as well as the flora and fauna that surrounds the area. In compliance with Covid guidelines, only ten people at a time are now allowed to pass through the bridge.

If you wish to experience this historic bridge along with a trip to mesmerizing Uttarakhand then connect with LCC Travels & Rentals for a perfect itinerary.
