

US LIFTS BAN FROM NOVEMBER 8

Here's a big news coming in that US Government has decided to lift entry restrictions from 8th November and will allow entry of fully vaccinated foreign travelers to the country. The top countries on the list are India, the UK and China. The passengers must be fully vaccinated authorized by the Food and Drug Administration or have an Emergency Use Listing from the World Health Organization as they also need to produce a negative test prior to 72 hours of boarding the flight. So it's time to pack your bags and make your reservations. Call us today!

SINGAPORE ALLOWS INDIANS

Indian travelers have waited for long to resume their travel in popular Asian destinations. Good news have come from Singapore where the Ministry Of Health has issued a statement mentioning that they have reviewed Covid-19 situation of India along with Bangladesh, Myanmar, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka. From 26 Oct'21, the travelers from the above mentioned countries will be allowed to enter and transit through Singapore. However the travelers will be subject to Category IV border measures which means that the arrivals will have to serve a 10-day stay-home notice (SHN) at dedicated SHN facilities.

ENTRY TO LONDON SIMPLIFIED

According to a recent announcement by British Airways, the entry requirements to London is now much simpler than before. Fully vaccinated customers can now book a quarantine-free trip to London and enjoy the destination with a reassurance that they can change their booking if they need to.

Customers will qualify as fully vaccinated if they are vaccinated either:

- under the UK vaccination program or an overseas vaccination program with an approved proof of vaccination for travel to the UK
- with a full course of the Oxford/AstraZeneca, Pfizer BioNTech, Moderna or Janssen vaccines from a relevant public health body in India.

However, the travelers should have a complete course of an approved vaccine at least 14 days before arrival in England. For full details of the update, you may contact us or visit the UK Government website.

ABU DHABI OPENS WARNER BROS. HOTEL

The film lovers can now have a unique taste of their favourite production house live in a hotel as Abu Dhabi is all set to open the world's first-ever Warner Bros. hotel this November. An official says, the hotel will start its operations from November 11, 2021 and welcome tourists from various parts of the world. The hotel is built on the popular Yas Island, which is one of the biggest tourist destinations in Abu Dhabi.

The visitors will get to experience their beloved stories and characters. The hotel will also talk about film's history and offer 360-degree city and sea views. Guests can also get a chance to sport their favorite costumes from Warner Bros. movies and TV shows. The new hotel will also mark the opening of the world's largest indoor theme park and the visitors will see digital screens playing scenes from Warner Bros.' archives. Since Abu Dhabi is open for Indian travelers now, you can book your next festive holidays here and experience this amazing spot.
