Want to stay in a treehouse in Uttarakhand ?

Your holidays can never be more interesting than this as you will get the the chance of spending your time in a treehouse and enjoy the sightings of wild animals from a height. As per the reports, Uttarakhand forest department is all set to open up a tree house for tourists in the Fato range of the Terai west forest division near Ramnagar in Nainital from early 2022.

As a matter of fact, this would be the first-ever tree house in the region that will be opened for tourists. A 40-feet-high structure built in the biodiversity-rich Terai west forest division where visitors can spot tiger, elephant and deer while sitting in the comfort of their rooms in the tree house. What can be more fascinating than this ?

Pataalkot - the destination underground

True to its meaning, Pataalkot is actually a place that exists in Chhindwara district of Madhya Pradesh in deep underground. The Pataalkot valley is spread over a huge area at an average height of 2750–3250 feet above Mean Sea Level. Covered with dense flora and fauna, Pataalkot is home to several medicinal plants, herbs, and also serves as a source of various species of animals and birds.

As a tourist you can engage yourself in various interesting activities like hiking, trekking, camping, river rafting and you can also spend time over tribal food cooked by the tribals from farm-fresh vegetables. You can experience Chhind art or Khajoor art created from handicrafts with leaves of chhind (wild dates) and artefacts made from wood and bamboo.

Interesting right !
