

THIS MONTH'S NEW !

Indian Villages Nominated for UNWTO Award

Rural tourism of India has moved to the next step further as they have grabbed the attention of UN's World Tourism Award. Proud moments for all the three Indian villages and the Tourism Of India as Madhya Pradesh's Ladhpara Khas village, Meghalaya's Kongthong village, and Telangana's Pochampally village have been nominated in the Best Tourism Village category for the United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) Award.

Situated near Betwa river, Ladhpara Khas village offers a serene environment to the tourists. You will also find few homestays in the village. Meghalaya's Kongthong village is located in the East Khasi Hills, and is known as Whistling Village. The specialty of the village is that the villagers even talk through tunes here! The village of Pochampally in Telangana is situated a few hours away from Hyderabad, and is renowned for its ikat sarees. The village is full of aesthetically designed mud houses, and can be explored on foot.

UPCOMING EVENTS & FESTIVALS

Pushkar Fair

11 - 19 Nov 2021 ; Rajasthan

The 14-day famous annual fair held in the town of Pushkar, located in Ajmer, Rajasthan is one of the oldest fairs in India and is soaked in the colors of Indian culture. It is also known as Pushkar Camel Fair and the local people call it 'Kartik Mela', as it starts in the Hindu Lunar month of Kartik and ends on the 'Kartik Purnima'. Innumerable travelers, vacationists, pilgrims, and local people gather to celebrate this event with utmost enthusiasm.

Guru Nanak Jayanti

19 Nov, 2021 ; Punjab

The festival begins two days prior by reading the holy book which is called Guru Granth Sahib. The Gurdwaras are decorated beautifully during these days, the Golden Temple at Amritsar however emerges as the cynosure. The festival is celebrated with a grand march, hymns, folklores and followed by a community meal. It becomes more grand with splendid displays by the swordsmen, a lot of culture-based artifacts like fulkari dupattas, karas and certainly the delicious delicacies.
